

COMMITTEE TOO TIRED TO PLAN CAMPAIGN WORK

Davis Goes to Farm Home And Bryan to Nebraska

NEW YORK, July 10. (AP)—Eager to attack post-convention details the Democratic national committee was unable today to bring fagged wits to serious business and decided to postpone formalities of organizing for the campaign until executives and party leaders had rested.

Hastily abandoned campaign buttons and multi-colored badges were heaped in various hotel repositories tonight as evidences of the historic struggle which gave Madison Square Garden its great day. Weary, but smiling and optimistic, the phalanx of delegates, alternates and advisers started homeward to tell the folks of the "strong and able candidates" result of their protracted labors.

The candidates themselves, after a day of consultation and greetings—during which the presidential nominee was introduced to his running mate for the first time—prepared for a brief period of organized and intensive rest.

John W. Davis returned to his home at Locust Valley, L. I., with definite plans only for rest. Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska, prepared to return to Lincoln, planning to confer in Chicago with middle-western party leaders.

Following the suggestion of Mr. Davis the new national committee at a perfunctory first session today approved a motion to postpone organization and the selection of a new chairman until after the Davis notification ceremonies at Clarkburg, W. Va., probably in about three weeks.

Women members of the national committee met separately formally demanded that women have equal representation on the important resolutions committee in future conventions. The meeting also approved a resolution lauding the work of Mrs. Emily Newell Blair of Missouri, vice-chairman of the national committee.

The two hour session of the women members was marked by several parliamentary tangles and flashes of colorful debate on a resolution limiting the authority of the women vice-chairmen in the matter of appointments and plans for the convention. Friends of Chairman Hull of the national committee made a formal presentation of a set of cuff link studs in recognition of his services at the Democratic helm.

DECREASES IN COAL OUTPUT REPORTED

ST. LOUIS, July 10. (AP)—A decrease of nearly a million and a half tons of coal mined during the six months ending June 30 in comparison with the corresponding period of last year for the fifth and ninth districts of Illinois is shown in the report of the Coal Operators' association of these districts. In the first six months of 1923 the operators of the two districts mined 7,794,784 tons of coal, while this year shows a slump to 5,312,592 tons.

Figures compiled from the eighty one mines in the districts show an average of fifty two hours working time in each of the last six months. In June 49 of the mines were idle.

According to Paul H. Greenshaw, statistician for the Coal Operators' association, lack of market is the principal cause of the decrease.

He warns the public to order coal now to avoid traffic congestion later in the year.

DECLARES KNOWLEDGE OF FARMING HELPFUL TO RURAL MINISTERS

Should Be Able to Talk Interestingly With Their Members

MADISON, Wis., July 10. The rural minister should know agriculture and should talk it to the farmer in seeking to bring religion to rural communities, Professor R. J. Colbert, University of Wisconsin told clergymen attending the National Interchurch conference here today.

Answering the question "to what extent should the country pastor study agriculture?" Professor Colbert declared rural clergy should know agriculture as well as the city minister understands business. The speaker urged rural religious workers to "talk shop" to the farmer in farm terms.

"The rural minister need not study agriculture as a profession, but he should be able to talk intelligently upon subjects in which his community is interested," Professor Colbert said. "His job is to get and hold the interest and respect of his people."

"There are too many churches in rural communities. This condition is due large to the fact that the churches were organized in the horse and buggy age and must rise to meet modern conditions and to the fact that they must compete with city churches and other agencies."

Mr. Colbert urged specialization by rural ministers and preparation for rural work. The rural minister, he said, should not consider his position a stepping stone to a city job. The church must be the leader in combating farm tenancy, which threatens certain agricultural sections, Rev. H. V. Hale, Belmont, N. Y., told the conference.

"Farm tenancy is one of the outstanding problems of church work in rural communities of the south and east and some sections of the west," declared Rev. Hale, recently a church worker in southern states. "Unless this problem is squarely met the church cannot hope to make headway in such communities."

The conference will be brought to a close with final discussion by leaders tomorrow and a general session.

PECKS INSIST THEY WERE WRIGHT'S TOOLS

ROCKFORD, Ill., July 10. (AP)—George Peck and his son, Clarence, farm hands of Buncombe county, North Carolina, alleged to have sent a letter to Senator and Mrs. Medill McCormick demanding $50,000 to insure their happiness were held to the October grand jury on a charge of attempted extortion today at a preliminary hearing before a justice of the peace. They could not furnish bonds and were jailed altho the justice and William Johnston, state's attorney are trying to obtain bonds for them.

The elder Peck faced Mrs. McCormick in court today and repeated his charge that John Wright, well-to-do farmer and his employer, was responsible for the extortion letter and that Peck and his son went to a culvert where a decoy letter had been placed on Wright's instructions, while unaware of the plan to obtain money from the McCormicks.

Wright is out on bond under a similar charge and will have his hearing on Saturday.

CALLED MEETING OF PROGRESSIVE PARTY SATURDAY

Assemble in Washington to Pick Vice- President

WASHINGTON, July 10. (AP)—As a preliminary to the completion of a national ticket supporting the presidential candidacy of Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, executive committee members of the conference for Progressive political action were summoned today to meet here Saturday. William H. Johnson, president of the International association of Machinists and temporary chairman of the convention at Cleveland which endorsed Senator LaFollette's candidacy, issued the call.

By action of the convention the selection of a vice-presidential candidate was left to committee action after conference with Senator LaFollette and representatives of other groups interested in his candidacy, to be taken up in Washington July 18. The preliminary session called today is expected to make arrangements and to canvass the situation.

No spokesmen for Senator LaFollette is said to have as yet given any indication of a certain choice for the second place the convention left vacant. Among those mentioned for the place are Justice Brandeis of the supreme court, Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, and Houston Thompson a Democratic member of the federal trade commission.

Only one drift of sentiment has been marked in the discussions thus far, persons interested in the movement apparently considering that Senator LaFollette's status as a Republican member of the senate should require the naming of a vice-presidential candidate who has been identified with the Democratic party.

FARM LEADERS CALL SECOND CONFERENCE

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 10.—(AP)—Farm leaders attending the preliminary sessions of the National Conference of Farm organization on the McNary-Haugen bill here today recommended a second conference to be held in the near future at a point convenient to Southern Delegates. BUILDING PROJECTS IMPORTED LARGER

Chicago, July 10.—Contemplated building projects throughout the country are slightly larger than at this time last year, according to a national monthly survey made by a large Chicago construction firm. In 322 cities and towns permits issued amounted to $1,950,000,000 for the first six months of the year, a gain of eight percent over the same period last year.

Calvin Coolidge Jr. Is Buried In Vermont

PLYMOUTH, Vt., July 10.—(AP)—In the little village cemetery where the maples and evergreens throw long shadows across the old tombstones on the hillside, they buried Calvin Coolidge, 16 year old son of the president, today. Restraining in large part outward manifestation of their sorrow, the President, Mrs. Coolidge and John, the elder son stood with bowed heads during the short, simple commitment services until a marine bugler had blown "taps" across the grave.

The cemetery where Calvin was laid to rest is on a little hill dominated by the green mountains which overshadow this village. In the family plot lie the mother of the president, ancestors and kinsmen.

Much of official Washington, including eight cabinet members, the speaker of the nations house of representatives and the governors of two states attended the services. The party from Washington came in the closely guarded train which was halted at Northampton for services in the Edwards Congregational church where Calvin was a member.

After the last note of taps had echoed away, the family group went for a short time to the old white farm house of the president's father, Colonel John C. Coolidge, where the president took his oath of office on August 3 a year ago. Then, accompanied by the elder Coolidge the little family, started on the journey back to Washington.

The funeral party on arrival at the Ludlow railroad station 13 miles away halted as the six marshes from the Presidential Yacht Mayflower who had guarded the boy's bier constantly in Washington and on the train carried their casket to a waiting hearse. Then the procession more than a mile long drove over the long road among the hills to the burial ground.

The party was forced to walk up the hillside to the spot where the grave had been prepared. After the marshes had lowered the casket into place a mixed quartet sang, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee," the Rev. Kenneth B. Wells, Northampton pastor who had accepted Calvin into the church read a few short passages from the bible then offered a brief prayer.

Softly again the quartet sang, "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us." After reciting the verses of the hymn, "He Leadeth Me," Rev. Jason M. Pierce pastor of the First Congregational Church in Washington read the commitment service.

In the course of the prayer, Mrs. Coolidge brushed away tears and leaned heavily upon the president. The hands of old Calvin Coolidge, holding his hat, trembled noticeably. On the hillside and on the slope across the road were gathered hundreds of villagers silent and sympathetic.

Taps were sounded then by the same marine bugler who had sounded the notes at the funerals of former President Wilson and President Harding and at the service of America's unknown soldier.

As the exercises ended, boy scouts to which organization Calvin had belonged, filed past the grave, each dropping a rose as he passed.

The ceremony ended, the long trip northward of the funeral train from Washington, which everywhere had drawn silent throngs of citizens.

MACDONALD EXPLAINS OUTCOME OF RECENT MEETING IN PARIS

In Case of Disagreement
United States Would Help Settle

LONDON, July 10. (AP)—The British prime minister Ramsey MacDonald made a statement in the house of commons today explaining his recent visit to Paris and his discussion with M. Herriot, the French premier on the reparations situation. It is evident from this statement that Mr. MacDonald has come far to allay and meet French reservations and susceptibilities, even to the extent of temporarily giving up some of his own pet ideas in an endeavor to help the French government ward off an actual attack by the Poincare cabinet in the French senate.

It had been agreed by the British ministers and Liberal leaders to await the outcome of the French senate debate before considering the subject in the British parliament.

In the memorandum accompanying the original British invitation to Italy, Belgium and Japan to attend an interallied conference the British proposed that in the event of a German default the matter be referred to the league of nations or the Hague arbitration tribunal thus lifting it out of the hands of the reparations commission.

It was this prospect that caused so much resentment in France and gave M. Poincare a weapon with which to attack Premier Herriot.

The British prime minister's statement shows that the idea of reference to the league or the Hague had been dropped and that in its stead an endeavor was being made to secure American help for such arbitration duties.

Two other important points came out in Premier MacDonald's statement, namely, that the British government declined to associate the question of interallied debts with the experts' report and would equally refuse to agree to any military pact with France.

BANDITS ESCAPE AFTER ROBBERY OF SECOR BANK

Shut Officials in The Vault — Get $3500 And Liberty Bonds

PEORIA, Ill., July 10. (AP)—Woodford county authorities tonight are working on the theory that three men who ate breakfast at El Paso, Ill., this morning at 3 o'clock, and of whom a good description was obtained, were the men who several hours later overpowered the president, cashier and woman clerk of the First National Bank of Secor, Ill., locked them in a vault and escaped with $3,500 in cash and Liberty Bonds worth several thousand dollars.

The securing of the description of the men was accomplished by Sheriff B. F. Brubaker of Woodford county, who speeded to Secor within a few minutes after the bank had closed, and three persons locked in the vault had gained freedom. The proprietor of the restaurant in El Paso where the men are said to have eaten breakfast said all three "looked like foreigners."

No one was in the bank at the time of the robbery except President E. J. Hanson, Cashier Ralph R. Bruster and Miss Martha Grady, clerk. The actual robbery was accomplished by two of the men who rushed into the building unannounced with drawn revolvers, covered the three persons with guns which were struck thru the bars of two case windows. The victims were then commanded to lie face downward on the floor while one robber vaulted over the high railing and scooped up the currency and liberty bonds. Several hundred dollars in silver was overlooked.

The victims were then ordered upon the vault and the door shut upon them. The robbers fled to an automobile in which the third man who had kept the engine running. The car sped northwest avoiding the hard road and was last seen by farmers about eight miles from Secor.

FARMER-LABORITES REFUSE TO SUPPORT SENATOR LAFOLLETTE

William Z. Foster Named
For President—Gitlow
Running Mate

CHICAGO, July 10. (AP)—Senator Robert M. LaFollette, endorsed for president last week at the conference for progressive political action will not receive the support of the Farmer-Labor Party, which held its convention recently at St. Paul, it was announced tonight by the executive committee of the party.

The executive committee at a meeting today consented to the withdrawal of Duncan McDonald of Illinois and William Beck of Washington state, its candidates for president and vice-president respectively, and endorsed the candidacy of William Z. Foster and Benjamin Gitlow of New York who have been entered as the candidates of the workers party of America.

The national executive committee of the Farmer-Labor party in a statement said that the conference for progressive political action at Cleveland had surrendered to LaFollette, betrayed the Farmer-Labor masses into the hands of merchants, manufacturers, bankers and rich farmers and thus destroyed the only chance for a united front campaign in the coming presidential election.

"The betrayal at Cleveland makes impossible any united front Farmer-Labor campaign," the statement said. "It delivers into the hands of LaFollette and the properties of the workers party attended by delegates from cities throughout the country."

C. E. Ruthenberg, executive secretary of the workers party in addressing the mass meeting declared what he termed a lack of interest in the working classes. The platform adopted at the Cleveland meeting was not the workers and majority of farmers, he said but for the small industrial professional class and well to do farmers.

Historical Floats Intermingled With Marchers — Many Prizes

BOSTON, July 10. (AP)—More than 40,000 members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks brilliant in many colored costumes, parading behind two score bands, brought to a climax here today the sixtieth annual national convention of the order which opened its session in this city on Monday. A brief heavy shower which brought relief from the heat, drove both paraders and spectators to cover but the long line of march was taken up again as soon as the sun appeared.

Heat and high humidity brought about the prostration of about thirty persons none of whom however, was seriously affected, the police reported.

Drill teams in multi-colored uniforms preceded many of the lodge groups. Historical floats broke in many places the long line of marchers. The Jackson, Michigan, drill team, five successive times winners of the national Elk drill trophy in red fezzes and jackets and blue pantaloons stood out prominently with well executed maneuvers.

Cambridge Elks, 1500 strong, in purple caps and gowns marched behind a float that boasted of Harvard, Radcliffe and other educational institutions within the city limits.

The Philadelphia lodge took three first prizes awarded to parading units. Among awards announced tonight for lodges outside of Boston were:

DAVIS GOES FOR SHORT REST AT HIS RURAL HOME

Four Stenographers Are Kept Busy Sorting Telegrams

NEW YORK, July 10.—After a hectic day, during which he surrendered good naturedly to a throng of admirers and photographers who besieged him repeatedly at the Waldorf Astoria hotel, John W. Davis, Democratic nominee for president tonight escaped from the inundation of congratulatory telegrams by a lengthy conference with Charles W. Bryan, his running mate and William Jennings Bryan, and prepared to go to his country home at Locust Valley, Long Island, for a brief rest before taking up detailed plans for his campaign.

William J. Bryan, when he left Mr. Davis was asked if he would take an active part in the campaign and replied: "I'll help if I can after I've had a rest."

William Jennings Bryan, who had opposed Mr. Davis' nomination, met the nominee in a corridor of a hotel immediately after Mr. Davis' meeting with newspapermen this morning. Mr. Bryan held out his hand, smiled and said:

"I am at your command."

The nominee went to the home of Frank L. Polk, former under secretary of state and spent the afternoon receiving callers and answering some of the messages that had poured upon him.

In conversation with the correspondents, Mr. Davis did not discuss any of the issues of the campaign explaining that because of the burial of President Coolidge's son today he preferred "not to get into the papers" much.

Mrs. Wilson's Message

In the flood of telegrams which four stenographers at the Polk home sorted was one from Mrs. Woodrow Wilson expressing the conviction that in the Democratic presidential nominee, "the things Mr. Wilson fought for will have a worthy champion."

Mr. Davis promptly dispatched to Mrs. Wilson at Washington this telegram:

"Your message was most gratifying and touched me deeply. Permit me to convey to you my very warm and heartfelt thanks for your congratulations on my nomination."

"I sincerely hope that I may be worthy of the confidence you express and that the great principles and purposes for which Mr. Wilson so valiantly fought may further triumph at the coming election. Mrs. Davis joins me in thanks for your message."

In reply to the brief "please accept my congratulations on your nomination," conveyed from William Gibbs McAdoo to Mr. Davis last night the nominee today sent Mr. McAdoo this telegram:

"I have profound confidence in the ultimate success of liberalism and Democracy."

A body guard extraordinary was attached to Mr. Davis today in the person of J. M. "Big Bill" Nye, who was New York City's official escort for European notables visiting here during and since the World War.

The strain of the long day had told a little on Mrs. Coolidge tonight. It was reported from the president's coach that she was tired but otherwise feeling as well as could be expected under the circumstances. Comforting at the day was John, a year and a half older than his brother and a constant companion of Calvin since babyhood. Altho he felt the shock of his brother's death keenly, today he was the most composed member of the Coolidge party constantly at his mother's arm.

HOW MANY TIMES

How many times do I love thee, dear?
Tell me how many thoughts there be
In the atmosphere
Of a new-fallen year,
Whose white and sabled hours appear
The latest flake of Eternity;
So many times do I love thee, dear.

How many times do I love thee, again?
Tell me how many beads there are
In a silver chain
Of the evening rain.
Untraveled from the twinkling main,
And threading the eye of a yellow star,
So many times do I love thee, again.

Thomas Lovell Beddie.

NOTHING CAN STOP HIM

BY ALBERT APPLE.

Schulz wanted to fly. Being a school teacher in East Prussia, he didn't have any too much money. So he gathered together some poles and tin cans and made a glider, one of those flying machines heavier than air and without a motor.

Schulz got his machine finished and entered the big gliding contest in Germany. The committee in charge decided his outfit was unsafe. So they barred him. That was a year ago.

Schulz went to work again. He got more tin cans, some falling wire and a lot of old broom handles. He built another glider, gave it a coat of paint, got past the committee.

With this crude home-made affair, Schulz broke the world's record, remaining in the air over 12 minutes.

Reminds you of a boy building a radio out of such things as a hairpin, a cockroach and an old watch case.

Take another case Earle F. Olson of Galesburg, Ill. He wanted a piano. Didn't have enough money to spare. So he built his own, a baby grand.

It took all his spare time, five hours a day for two years. Finally he shaped and assembled 200 separate pieces of parts and materials.

Experts are amazed when they hear Olson play this home-made piano. It looks and sounds like a factory-made instrument. You appreciate such an accomplishment if you are a musician.

One man builds his own flying machine. Another, his own piano. Not many years since, Ford, a mechanic, built his own auto engine included and then began building them for others by the millions, over 10 million cars to date. Further back, we find Howe laboriously fitting out and building the first sewing machine. So it goes.

None of these men had opportunities. They created their own opportunities. Handicaps and obstacles can be overcome. That's been proved thousands of thousands of times. What counts are ambition, determination and willingness to work. Given these, nothing can stop the progress of man, except the most exceptionally bad luck.

Flash.
An airplane that would travel 470 miles an hour. The French government experts, this speed from its new "rocket plane," now being developed. No engine. It's shot ahead like a skyrocket by a series of gas explosions one after the other. We can't see a rocket engine started.

Five years ago, people would have said "Bunk." Now they merely lift their eyebrows and wonder how long until a plane making 1000 miles an hour will be perfected.

Catfish.
Catfish and a half million pounds in eight weeks, are the new fish catch in Lake Okechobee in Florida and shipped to distant markets.

We wonder under what name they appeared on the bill of fare. Did you ever see catfish on the menu? Maybe it was a good thing we don't know the history of catfish. It might have an epidemic of voluntary starvation.

C. & A. ANNUAL REPORT IS ISSUED

Interesting Statistics About Finances and Operation Given.

Receiver W. G. Bied has issued the annual report of the Chicago and Alton for the year ending December 31, 1923. While most of the figures showing the year's operations have been published, yet there are many statistics of interest in the statement. The road showed a net earnings of $1,177,144 after paying taxes and all other charges.

This is equivalent to $1.53 per share on the common stock after allowing four per cent for the prior lien and four per cent for the preferred stock. The report shows total assets of $177,345, $29 as compared with $168,311 for the previous year. The cost of operating was mounted 488 year, 1923, at $1,625,312, as against $1,601,750 for 1922. The before-tax losses, largely to depreciation, were $10,115, 536 and operating liabilities $29,814,090 as compared with $3,507,982 and $18,216,36, respectively in 1922.

Profit and loss deficit was $8,027,018, as against $9,027,160 of the year 1922. The latter year after all expenses taxes, etc. were paid showed a deficit of $2,100,187. It was brought about largely by the strike of the shops' clerks. However in 1923 this deficit was largely made up.

The year in many respects was the most satisfactory in the history of the company. It is unfortunate that 1924 is showing up as unfavorably.

Additional Subscription Announced at C. & A. Meeting — New Finance Committee Named.

Reports of the new factory building committee given last night at the meeting of the Chicago and Alton board of directors showed that additional subscriptions of $5,200 have been received by solicitors, bringing the total pledged to the building fund to $21,299. It is believed that sufficient funds to complete the project will soon be available to the committee.

Dr. Carl E. Black was announced as the chairman of the centennial celebration committee, and the personnel of the executive board will be announced soon. The board appointed a new finance committee, consisting of Gary Frisch, chairman, Lee A. Bryan and L. E. Randall.

The board heard reports on the progress in the sale of water bonds, the extension of water main, and boulevard light extension work. Secretary Welch was given permission by the board to allow a post graduate course at Southwestern university during the last week in July. He will arrange some special courses at the university. The board also unanimously decided that the local chapter of Commerce shall join the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Last night the ballots for the election of a new board of 12 directors of the Commercial Union were placed in the mails. Twelve members are to be chosen by direct election from the entire membership list, which accompanied the ballot, along with a list of the present members of the board. All ballots were returned to headquarters by 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, July 10.

MRS. W. W. PATTERSON DIES BY HANGING

Body of Murrayville Woman Found Hanging from Raft in Lake—Had Been in Ill Health for Number of Months.

Murrayville, July 10.—Mrs. Walter W. Patterson was found dead here this afternoon at 1 o'clock, in the loft of a cow barn, with a rope about her neck. She had disappeared from the house about 30 minutes before she was missed by her husband who was reading a paper. Mrs. Patterson had been in ill health for several months and a few weeks ago attempted to jump into a well at her home.

Life, ill health and grief over the death of her son who was killed in France is thought to have contributed largely to her physical and mental breakdown. She had taken treatment in Jacksonville some time ago, and her condition remaining the same she expressed a desire to return to her home, which she did.

Following the discovery that his wife had disappeared from the house yesterday afternoon, Mr. Patterson became alarmed and began a search of the premises for her. Failing to find his wife, he summoned Mrs. Charles Ketter and Mrs. A. T. Story, two neighbors who joined in the search. Mrs. Patterson was found by Mrs. Story in the cow barn dead, a rope tied around her neck and up and over a rafter of the building. She was sitting on the other end of the rope and was dead when found.

Grieved for Son.
A few days after armistice was signed ending the World War, Clarence Patterson, son of the decedent met death by the accidental explosion of a shell in France. The loss of her son was a great shock to Mrs. Patterson, who has grieved continuously since, causing a breakdown, both physically and mentally.

Corner C. A. Rose of Jacksonville was summoned and conducted an inquest last night at the family residence here. Witnesses for the home were Mr. Patterson, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Charles Ketter and J. L. Weaver. Mr. Patterson told of missing his wife and his search for her in which he was joined by neighbors and of being back in the home after she had been discovered by Mrs. Story. Mr. Story and Mr. Weaver testified with reference to finding the body in the barn by the position of the rope.

Ketter stated that Mrs. Patterson had been in a very nervous condition for about a year and had not been in good health since the death of her son in France. She had the last supper of Mrs. Patterson from summing into a well recently and that she had said that she had nothing to live for.

The members of the inquest were J. T. Wild, foreman, W. B. Worsell, W. H. Hogue, R. M. Morgan, G. W. Farnhill and Ralph Wilkins, and they returned a verdict of hanging with a rope with suicidal intent.

Mrs. Patterson was born in Scott county, near Waverly, in November, 1863, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cobb. On November 19, 1887, she was united in marriage to Walter W. Patterson and he with two sons survive. The sons are Leonard of Roodhouse and Ollie at home. One son, Clarence was killed in France. Two sisters and three brothers have also preceded her in death.

The decedent has been a member of the Methodist church here since she was 15 years of age. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

AMERICANS RETAIN LEAD IN OLYMPIC WITH FINLAND NEXT

Show Superiority in Hammer Throw And Pole Vault Events

OLYMPIC STADIUM, Colombes, July 10. (AP)—Within two hours this afternoon Paavo Nurmi, Finland's great distance runner, won the 1,500 and 5,000 meter events, breaking the Olympic records at both distances and winning an Olympic triumph such as no individual has ever achieved before. Nurmi captured the 1,500 meter run against a fine field in three minutes 53 3-5 seconds, lopping off 3 1-5 seconds from the old record but failing by 2-5 of a second to equal his own world record. He won the 5,000 meters from his fellow countryman, while Ritola in 14:31 1-2 seconds, beating both the Olympic and the world record by several seconds. But even this super triumph of Finland's greatest ace could not check the onward march of the United States for the Americans demonstrated vast superiority in the pole vault and hammer throw, the remaining finals of the fifth day of the Olympic competition and lengthened their mounting point lead over the rival Scandinavian nation in the dual for international athletic supremacy. The glory which went in double measure to Nurmi was also shared for the day by two young Americans, Fred Tootell, Boston A. C., who captured the hammer throw by a decisive margin from his countryman, Matt J. McGrath, New York A. C., veteran of 1904 Olympics and Leo Barnes, the 17-year old California high school boy who won the pole vault laurels in the jump off with his country rival, Glenn Graham, after they had tied for first place at a height of 3.95 meters (12 feet, 11 1-2 inches) which equaled the Olympic record. These feats sent Finland's emblem and the stars and stripes exclusively up the victory pole for the day. A crowd of nearly 25,000, the largest since the opening day assembled in the expectation of witnessing the greatest of struggles for honors in the epic Olympic battle and they were not disappointed. Perhaps even more amazing than Nurmi's triumphs, which seemed a foregone conclusion were the marvelous stamina and speed of Ritola, already twice a victor in record time, who though racing 26,000 meters in five days yet had power to run stride for stride with the world's fastest distance man. Ray Watson, the American star provided the chief thrill when he took gamely to the heels of the flying Finn until 300 meters from the tape. But Watson wilted near the end and was unplaced. The hammer throw witnessed the elimination of one American, Jack Morgan, Olympic club, San Francisco, former intercollegiate champion, but with Fred Tootell and Matt McGrath taking first and second and James MacEachern, Olympic club, United States carried off any heavy point roll.

CHICKENS AND LEMONS SAME PRICE IN RUSSIA

Berlin, (AP)—Roast chicken, eggs, black bread and cakes and other edibles produced locally, are reasonable in price in Russia but when it comes to fruit, tolls, articles, or anything else which has been imported, they usually are nearly worth their weight in gold, according to Dr. Willbur K. Thomas of Philadelphia, executive secretary of the American Friends Society. Dr. Thomas recently completed an inspection trip of several weeks in Russian districts where the Quakers' organization is still assisting the inhabitants. At the railroad stations on different routes he noted that an entire roast chicken sold for approximately 75 cents, while a lemon, which had been imported, cost as much as the chicken.

BUSINESS DECLINES ARE ATTRIBUTED TO CROP UNCERTAINTY

Labor Conditions In Eighth District More Unsatisfactory

St. Louis, (AP)—Unseasonable weather and uncertainty of crop outcome constitute the chief factors in the present decline of business activity in the Eighth Federal Reserve District, says the June review made public by W. McMartin, chairman of the St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank board.

Unusually heavy rains have retarded the farmers' spring work, the report continues, and thus the usual stimulation to business felt at the approach of early harvest is lacking. Farmers have been unable to get into their fields to cultivate crops, and growth and development of the principal products are from one to four weeks late. Extensive replanting of cotton, corn and some other crops has been necessary, and in some sections the seed has not been put in at all, due to the soggy and unworkable condition of the soil. Farm supplies and merchandise generally for distribution in rural districts, the report points out, and moving slowly.

The labor situation in the district reported generally less favorable at present than during the preceding month, due principally to the curtailment of operations by the packing, iron and steel and milling industries. Farm labor has become plentiful because of the lateness of crops. A slight increase of unemployment is noted in the large cities, due to reduced industrial operations, and additional idle workers are reported in the coal, lead and zinc mining districts.

Discussing the continued dullness in coal mining, the report says: "Except for a slight improvement in sentiment, based on gradually dwindling reserves of numerous important industries, the coal situation underwent no change from the recent dull conditions. There was a further decline in production, accounted for in the main by lack of orders received at the mines. The revival in purchasing looked for about June 1 failed to materialize and consumers, both large and small, have not deviated to any appreciable extent from the policy of hand to mouth buying. Slackened industrial activity is reflected in reduced consumption of steaming coal and operators continue to comment upon the inroads made in their business by fuel oil and electric power competition. The trend of prices continued downward until June 1 when circular quotations were advanced by many of the companies and most of the leading independent producers from 10 cents to 20 cents per ton."

As compared with the corresponding period last year, traffic of railroads operating in the Eighth district again showed rather sharp decline, but the May business was well in excess of that for the same month in 1922, with one large Southwestern system showing the heaviest May traffic in its history. Tonnage moved by the Mississippi River section of the Federal barge line between St. Louis and New Orleans amount to 68,000 tons during May, against 81,528 tons in April and 77,552 tons in May, 1923. The values of building permits issued in the five largest cities of the district during May fell sharply below the record total of April, but was only 3.8 percent under the aggregate of May, 1923. Building operations in the larger centers continued at an active pace in June, with residential construction still occupying an important place in the general activity.

Generally abundant funds and a lower trend in interest rates, coupled with a slackening in the demand for credit from commercial and industrial sources, featured the banking and financial situation in the district the last thirty days. Commercial banks, particularly in the large cities, report liquidation of loans in good volume. Collections made a good showing.

Mr. H. B. Neal and children of Roodhouse spent Thursday in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rohrig of Winchester were business callers in Jacksonville Thursday.

LAWRENCE COUNTY IS PRONOUNCED STATE'S GREATEST OIL FIELD

3,500 Wells Produced About 3,150,000 Barrels Each Year

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., (AP) Crawford county, thought to be Illinois' greatest oil region, although leading in number of wells, does not equal Lawrence county in gallons of oil pumped, according to 1923 oil and gas statistics published by the division of economic investigation of the department of mines and minerals.

With approximately 6,900 wells, Crawford county pumps an estimated amount of 1,800,000 barrels of oil annually, while Lawrence county, with 3,500 wells, pumps a large amount, estimated at 3,150,000 barrels.

The figures show an increase in both production and number of wells over the same report for 1922, as well as a decrease in accidents at the pumping stations and in drilling. In 1923 there was but one death and one injury in the oil industry of the state, out of the 1200 men at work in the fields.

Fifty-two companies operate a total of 14,000 wells throughout the state, with most of the productive ones situated in Lawrence and Crawford counties, the report shows. Clark county places a close third in the number of wells in operation, but production is much less than in Lawrence and Crawford counties.

On an average, one man operates a total of 13 wells, under the present system of pumping. The larger companies have more than 12 wells under the control of one man, but the smaller companies still use a less centralized system.

Counties included in the oil report are the major oil producing regions of the state, Clark, Clinton, Coles, Crawford, Cumberland, Hancock, Lawrence, Marion, McDonough, Monroe, Richland, and Walsh are included.

Since the statistics were compiled a 30-barrel well in Logan county has been reported. Drilling of test holes in Brown, Fulton and Pope counties failed to locate wells.

Evidence to support the announcement that more wells were opened in 1923 than in 1922 in this state is shown in the fact that several thousand more quarts of nitroglycerin were used last year than the year before, in the shooting of new wells.

GERMAN STEVEDORES NEED SPEED

Breherhaven, AP—The stevedores of New York have an enviable reputation for efficiency. For instance, they can load a liner in New York in 26 hours, but when the vessel gets here it takes the German dockmen 72 hours to get this same cargo ashore. Efforts are being made to reduce this loading time. The dock is wasted, from the standpoint of the owners, as compared to sea travel with cargo and tourists paying transportation rates.

CLUB BUYS WHOLE TOWN

San Francisco, (AP)—Instead of a club house, the Delevan Club has bought a whole town. It is the village of Delevan, in Colusa county, in the rice fields. The purchase includes 72 acres of buildings and town lots and 2,000 acres of rice fields, which have been flooded for duck hunting. The town includes a hotel, a number of bungalows, a water works and a mile of streets and sidewalks. Golf links will be built. The club's activities will consist of sports and diversion the year around.

Why Enterprise Flour is so strong

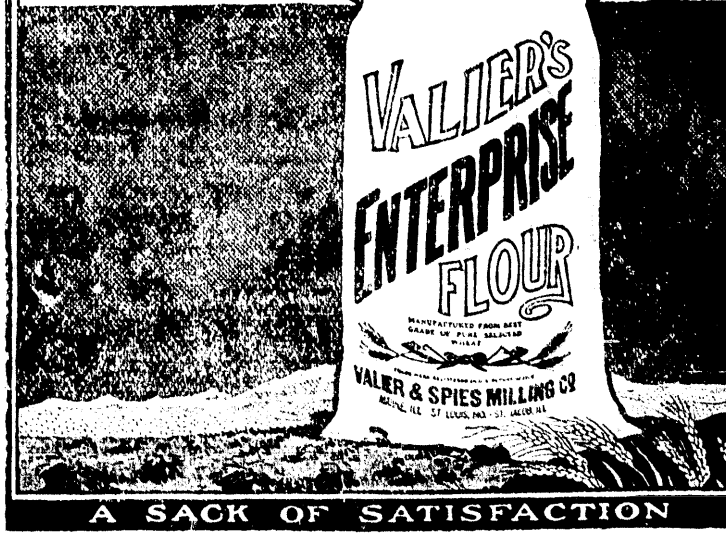

Nothing but the finest grade of strong hard winter wheat is used in making Enterprise. And then, only the very best part of each kernel, the rest going for other purposes.

A special slow process of milling retains all the "life" and fine baking qualities of this unusual wheat. Instead of being crushed the wheat is cut into tiny particles and the choicest of them sifted through fine silk.

The strength of many bushels of fine strong wheat is concentrated in a sack of Enterprise Flour. No wonder it produces such fine baking and goes so far!

CONFEDERATE MONEY PREFERRED TO GOLD

MACON, Ga., (AP)—While "it pays to advertise" is an axiom of the present era, that knowledge must have been more or less common even in the days of the civil war, according to an advertisement of that period reprinted in a recent issue of the Macon Telegraph.

Here is the specimen which, while it is not recorded whether the advertisement brought results, would indicate that even grandfathers know of the advantages of telling the world.

"The concern of Roberts, Dunlap and Co., being somewhat demoralized, our Senior and Co., being in the hands of the doctors, and our middle man in the army, makes it absolutely necessary that those who owe us should settle without delay. We have some half-bushel, more or less, of due-bills given for cash and goods, payable in bacon, pork, corn, wheat etc. We have no time; talent or shoe leather to waste in running after these claims. We want money (not gold or silver) but Confederate money and we want it at once. Our store is full of goods and we are anxious to sell for something to eat."

HOPE TO ABOLISH ALL SECRET TREATIES

CHICAGO, July 10.—Hope for the abolishment of secret military treaties and for increased security in peace is being placed by European nations in the proposed plan for treaties of mutual assistance said Dr. Charles De Visser, professor of international law at the University of Ghent and legal advisor to the Belgian government in an address here today before the first institute of international politics being held under the Harris memorial foundation at the University of Chicago. As developed so far, Dr. De Visser said, the plan is for a general treaty, open to all nations, in which the signatories agree to submit all disputes for arbitration to respect each others' constitutional and territorial rights and in case of unprovoked attack to confer on what action, military or otherwise should be taken.

Lost in the Woods

Experienced woodsmen say that when a man gets lost in the forest he usually travels round and round in a circle.

That's just the way some folks shop. They hit the buying trail, stray from it a bit, and before they are aware of the fact, they are lost—wandering in a maze of counters—gradually growing wearier and wearier—and finally get back home mentally and physically tuckered out without having accomplished much.

Up-to-date shoppers make up their minds what they are going to buy before they leave the house. They know exactly what they want, how much they want to pay, and just where they will find the right goods at the right prices. To them shopping is a pleasure.

The modern shoppers read the advertisements carefully and regularly. They find that the advertisements save them steps, bother, trouble and time.

MEMORIAL COLUMNS BEING CONSTRUCTED AT U. OF I. STADIUM

Names Of 179 Deceased Soldiers Of World War Approved

URBANA, Ill. (AP)—Memorial columns to 200 Illinois soldiers who fell during the World War are being installed in the new University Stadium, and contractors in charge of the work have promised that the colonnade will be in place by the time the students return in September.

The columns, placed in rows of 50, will form a long colonnade on the outside of each of the two stands, approximately 50 feet above the ground. Between the two rows of columns there will be a promenade 18 feet wide and 114 feet long, with memorial and trophy rooms at each end.

To date the names of 179 men have been approved by a committee of former service men, for inscriptions on the columns. One column is to be dedicated to the unknown dead of the university and a second to members of the Student's Army and Navy training corps who died at the university during their training.

A column will also be dedicated to Curtis Ryden, the University of Illinois athlete, a native of Illinois, who was killed in France. Funds for this column were raised and presented to the Stadium fund by Fielding Yost, football coach at the University of Michigan.

The first column put in place bore the simple inscription: Alvin J. Adams Ex-20 Corp. 312 Am Tn.

Each column consists of three drums made of white bedford stone. Including base and cap the columns are 18 feet high.

With the completion of the memorial colonnade the Stadium contractors will have most of the building operations out of the way and can begin polishing rough spots and cleaning the premises for the official dedication of the structure and its presentation to the university by the athletic association.

ORTHODOX WIVES ARE DENIED CHINESE BY IMMIGRATION LAWS

Girls Raised in America Not As Desirable For Good Wives

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The new American immigration law, with its provision excluding aliens ineligible to citizenship, is having quite an effect on San Francisco's historic Chinatown. The orthodox among the Chinese men are just beginning to realize that they will have to abandon the custom of sending to China after marriageable girls. Consequently the law is expected to make a radical change in the domestic situation in upper Grant Avenue and its byways.

The young Chinese has been in the habit of going back to China, claiming a bride to whom he often had been betrothed since childhood, and bringing her back here. This arrangement had several advantages for the husband. The marital settlement required with his parents-in-law was much less in China, usually not exceeding a few hundred dollars. The girl had been raised to Oriental docility and followed him prepared to accept any sort of home he might provide.

The Chinese girl raised in San Francisco is a different creature. She has adopted the ways of American flappers, dress, bobbed hair and independent ways. She has shed her eastern obedience. She marries whom and when she will and specifies the conditions under which she will take a husband. Furthermore her parents require much larger settlements than do the parents in China.

The immigration law prohibits the importation of brides from China. The American Chinese girl is already here. She is credited with having expensive tastes. She expects, contrary to the immemorial customs of China a regular courtship, with trips to the theatre, dinners, boxes of candy and jewelry. She is too chatted.

PETIT LARCENY NOT SUBJECT TO PAROLE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Prisoners convicted solely of petit larceny are beyond the provisions of the Illinois Parole act, Attorney General Edward J. Bradley has advised County Judge Charles P. Barnes of McHenry county, the law does not empower a judge to inflict a penitentiary sentence for petit larceny.

"It has been uniformly held by the Supreme Court," the attorney general wrote, "that the Parole act does not fix a punishment for a crime, but clearly implies that the legislature has already defined crimes and fixed their punishment, and that under the title of the parole act it would be void if construed as fixing such punishment."

To hold that the Parole act invests the court with power to impose a penitentiary sentence as punishment for petit larceny would be to hold that the Parole fixer for crime by the Criminal code, by authorizing the court to impose such punishment for petit larceny.

The provision of the Parole law applies to two classes of persons, those who have committed offenses punishable by a penitentiary sentence and offenses punishable by either county jail or penitentiary imprisonment.

HOSPITAL PATIENTS NOW HAVE ICE CREAM

State Institution Here Has Economical Way of Freezing Cream and Inmates Get It Each Week—New Physical Director Employed—Other Notes.

Every patient in the Jacksonville State Hospital is now being served with ice cream once a week, and practically without extra expense to the state. The cream is served to the patients in the wards each Thursday, being taken to the wards in three, five and ten gallon cans, according to the number of persons to be served.

The cream is frozen at the institution ice plant, and with the same brine that is used in the manufacture of the ice. A machine for this purpose was purchased, and after the first cost, there is practically no additional expense involved. The brine is forced thru a pipe into coils circling the container, and after it has done its work, is conveyed back to the brine tank. The machine freezes ten gallons of cream in about thirty minutes, giving it the consistency of thick natural cream. The can is then removed and placed in one of the pits used for the making of ice, where it is frozen solid by the ordinary process.

When the time comes to serve the cream, it is packed in ice in the usual way and taken to the wards. The supply used for a single meal is 175 gallons.

News Notes
Workmen are now busy constructing entrances at the South Main and Diamond street terminals of the half mile of hard road thru the hospital grounds. Special lights are to be placed at each entrance, and when completed, the approaches to the new road will be an attractive addition to the institution.

A force of painters is soon to be set to work painting the exterior of the main building. This will be a big undertaking, considering the size of the structure.

Miss Josephine Childs of Alton has been appointed the new director of eubacteriology and amusements at the State hospital. The work of giving special physical exercises to the patients in the various occupational and industrial groups will be extended and developed. Harry Goodman, a

RELIGIOUS PAGEANT GIVEN AT INSTITUTE

Beardstown Methodists Present Drama at Evening Session—Bible of News Picked Up About the Grounds.

A cast of characters from among the Methodist young people of Beardstown furnished the program at the evening session of the Epworth League Institute last night. They presented a religious drama, "The Challenge of the Cross." The leading role was taken by Miss Margaret Stuckey, and the chief subordinate role was taken by Mrs. Harry Harper. Mrs. Fred Kline directed the drama and did the solo work.

The drama was well received by a large audience, and the work of the cast made a favorable impression. Tonight Dr. S. D. White, who is the director of recreation at the institute, will deliver an inspirational address on "The Challenge of Christ."

A new arrival on the grounds yesterday was Rev. Wilbur Dawson, pastor of Grace M. E. church, Decatur.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray L. Ragan and two children of Atlanta are campers on the grounds. They expect to remain thru the institute and then visit Rev. Ragan's mother, Mrs. Frank Masters, south of the city.

The young ladies are playing some lively baseball games on an improvised diamond to the south of the camp.

Rev. D. V. Gowdy, the manager of the camp, reports that the institute is going along satisfactorily. There have been no accidents or sickness among the young people. Everybody keeps busy.

Music may be heard in the assembly tent at any time during the afternoon. There is much excellent musical talent on the grounds and the young people make good use of the piano. Many have their own musical instruments, and one may hear a violin solo, a vocal selection, or other kinds of music in the tent.

INQUEST INTO DEATH OF MR. GRAUBNER HELD

An inquest into the death of William H. Graubner, held yesterday morning at the Gillham Funeral Home found that "William H. Graubner came to his death by shock resulting from injuries he received when he accidentally fell from the roof of the Hackett home at 1944 South Main street, Jacksonville, Ill., while working under contract to paint a house of Mary B. Hackett."

The jury impaneled by Coroner Rose included William Batz, foreman; William H. Slater, J. N. Green, J. L. Taysman, Glenn W. Howard and F. W. Brockhouse, clerk. Louis Barrow, who was working with Mr. Graubner at the time of the accident, was one of the witnesses at the inquest. He testified that Mr. Graubner was working on the roof of the house removing the stage and was untying saddle boards when the cleats on top slipped over the roof. The saddle board slipped from the roof with Mr. Graubner sitting on it and he fell about 30 feet to the ground. Dr. W. D. Duncan who was called immediately after the accident explained the nature of the man's injuries, stating that death was caused by the shock of these injuries.

BURGLAR PACKS AND UNPACKS BIG TRUNK

Takes $120 From Chest After Carrying it into Back Yard—Enters House Thru Kitchen Window.

The thief who entered the home of Edward Kinniger, 523 Sherman street, Wednesday night and stole $120 and a watch, did a man-sized job. The burglar entered the house by prying loose the screen from a kitchen window. He then went into one of the bedrooms, picked up a heavy trunk and carried it thru the kitchen door into the back yard. Although four people were in the house at the time, no one heard a sound, and the robbery was not discovered until early yesterday morning when Mr. Kinniger found the trunk in the yard.

The burglary was evidently committed sometime before midnight, as at that time, one of the boys came home. Other members of the family heard him stumble over something as he came into the house. He explained yesterday that the object proved to be a suit case, which he supposed some of the family had left standing in the floor.

Mr. Kinniger found that the lock of the trunk had been broken. The sum of $126 was in the trunk before the robbery. Mr. Kinniger explained to police that he had drawn the money from the bank the day before, in order to pay some men who had been working on his house. The sum of $6 was found lying on the ground near the trunk. The money was wet with dew and had been lying in the grass for some time. The thief had evidently dropped it in his haste to get away.

Mr. Kinniger notified police, and the officers investigated the case. As yet they have obtained no clue to the identity of the thief.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO BE GIVEN TOUR OF CITY

The Chamber of Commerce will give the 126 delegates now encamped at the Epworth League institute a tour of the city today. A hundred cars will be required to convey the delegates over the route. Citizens who will drive their cars are asked to report at Nichols park at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon and pass opposite to the children's playground. The tour will last from 1:30 to 2:45. Those who will furnish cars are asked to call 781 and give in their names. Citizens are urged to co-operate in this effort to entertain the visitors and show the hospitality of the city.

The Chamber of Commerce board of directors, at its meeting last night, voted to invite the institute to come here again in 1925. The directors and all citizens are pleased with the presence of the young people and desire the return of the conference. In fact, it is hoped that the institute will find a permanent home at Nichols park and will return from year to year.

LOCAL KIWANIS HEAR TWO MEMBERS

Rev. G. E. Stuckey and Thomas M. Coyle Entertain Their Fellow Clubmen at Yesterday's Luncheon

Jacksonville Kiwanians at yesterday's luncheon were addressed by two of their members. Rev. G. E. Stuckey gave a very interesting report of the International Convention of the Kiwanis clubs, held recently at Denver, which he attended, and Thomas M. Coyle gave some facts and figures on the Coca Cola factory.

Mr. Stuckey stated that he was impressed by the courtesy extended to the many visitors in Denver who attended the convention and the smoothness with which the convention was carried on as an organization. The speaker also spoke of the character of the men in attendance at the meeting, stating that everyone had the appearance of being keen business men.

He said it was a tremendous inspiration to know that the Kiwanis represents 1,200 communities preaching the Golden Rule of business. The new constitution which was adopted at the convention was the very best obtainable. Much time had been spent on drafting it and upon getting it ready for adoption at the meeting. The new laws were adopted because of the growth of the Kiwanis clubs.

The Kiwanis had three aims at the international session, the personal aim, that each member should become less self-confessed; the national aim, bringing good men into leadership who would otherwise be obscure and the international aim, bringing together men of different nations.

Mr. Coyle then told of the Coca Cola industry of which he is a representative in Jacksonville and related his reasons for selecting Jacksonville for engaging in business. He stated that he traveled over the United States and Europe extensively and it was only after a thorough study of the various cities with reference to possibilities in the line of work which he proposed to undertake that he selected Jacksonville.

The speaker stated that a great deal had been said concerning the harmfulness of Coca Cola as a drink but that this was untrue. That today this drink is classed as a food product containing as much value as a slice of bread or meat. Very few people realize that the carbonate business is, he stated, it was first introduced into the United States as a medicine and next as a beverage and finally classed as food. Only pure granulated sugar is used in the manufacture of the drink, and the past year more than 1,000,000 pounds of sugar was used in making the sirup which is an ingredient of the drink. The food laws with reference to its manufacture are very strict and the bottling works in the various districts undergo most rigid inspections.

The guests of the club yesterday were Dr. C. H. Rammekamp, Felix Farrell, Jr., Arthur Twell, Dr. Clark, E. C. Wagner, Peoria, E. C. Murray, Peoria, Mr. Patterson, St. Louis and F. W. Galbraith, Cincinnati, Ohio.

MANCHESTER FARMER IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Perry Alred Passes Away Yesterday Morning After Long Illness—Funeral Services to Be Held This Afternoon

Manchester, July 10.—Perry Alred, for many years a prominent farmer in Morgan, Scott and Greene counties, died at his home here early this morning. Mr. Alred's death came after a lingering illness due to diabetes and complications. He had been bedfast for the last two months.

Mr. Alred has always been a farmer on quite an extensive basis. He became successful thru his long and active holding during his life. He was born in Morgan county, southwest of Murrayville on June 28, 1861, a son of Hiram and Margaret Alred and was next to the last of a family of 12 children. He was united in marriage to Miss Anna Moore, who with four children survive. The children are Mrs. J. H. Allen, Roodhouse; Mrs. Perry Simmons, Murrayville; Mayo Alred, Little Rock, Ark.; and Mrs. Roy McPherson of Manchester. He also is survived by 16 grandchildren and five sisters, Mrs. M. E. Slater, Alva, Okla.; Mrs. Marvin Criswell, Canada; Mrs. Dora McCanist, Warrington, Kan.; Mrs. Sara Conway, Mo.; and Mrs. Lois Black, New Berlin.

The deceased was a member of the Lorton Prairie Baptist church and was a man of excellent Christian character. He will be sadly missed by the community. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Baptist church, in charge of Rev. W. K. Morgan and assisted by Rev. Ingram and Rev. N. M. Antrobus. Burial will be in Manchester cemetery.

LIONS INSTALLED NEW OFFICERS LAST NIGHT

H. K. Snyder Again Heads Local Club—Gives Report of International Convention.

New officers of the local Lions club, which were elected a week ago, were duly installed at the regular meeting at the Dunlap last night. The officers are:

President—Harry K. Snyder.
First vice president—H. H. Vasconcellos.
Second vice president—Tom Duffner.
Third vice president—William DeBolt.
Secretary—J. V. Kennedy.
Treasurer—Leonard Potter.
Lion Tamer—C. E. Hamilton.
Tail Twister—Charles Baker.
Directors—Cleop Bell and Carl York.

The program of the meeting was opened with two vocal selections by Miss Beulah Tull, with Willard Wesner as accompanist. H. K. Welch then spoke briefly on the erection of the industrial incubator building and what it means to the community.

The feature of the program was the report of the Lions International convention recently held at Omaha, Neb., given by the club delegate, H. K. Snyder. The report was pronounced by the members one of the best ever given by a delegate. It made the Lions roar, and Mr. Snyder, with his witty comment on the convention and his description of its incidents, proved that the spirit of Mark Twain is not dead.

This was the 8th annual convention of the International Association of Lions Clubs and was held in Omaha, June 23 to 26. The delegates were royally entertained by the Omaha citizens. The Omaha Lions club presented the International president with a gavel composed of forty different varieties of wood, selected from all the districts of Lionism in the United States and Canada.

The delegates witnessed the famous Ar-sar-ben, the official carnival and festival held each year in Omaha. They were entertained at a civic dinner, where 5,000 persons were seated at tables.

BASKET RACKS IN GRAIN THRESHING

Records Show Use of Racks Has Meant 25 Percent of Labor Saving.

On the farms which used basket racks, there was a saving of 25 percent in the man labor required for getting the bundles of grain to the threshing machines, compared with farms on which field pitchers were employed to load the rack wagons. That is the results of a survey conducted in 1921 by C. A. Bonner of the department of farm organization and management, University of Illinois. It is of particular interest at this time, for the basket rack is being debated in some threshing clubs.

This survey included ninety-seven farms on which large threshing machines were used and where field pitchers were employed, and twenty-two farms using large machines and basket racks. It also included fifteen farms using small threshing outfits. The use of basket racks did not effect the labor of hauling grain, handling the blower, and whatever odd jobs there were to do around the machines but it made a total saving of labor in threshing of 20 per cent with both small and large machines.

With the large machines using field pitchers an average of 9.5 bundle haulers and six field pitchers were used. The farms using basket racks used eleven bundle haulers and no field pitchers, the amount of grain threshed per hour was approximately the same in both cases. With the small threshing machines the crews were about one-half the size of the large crews and the rate of threshing was one-half as fast.

SURVEY STARTED TO REDUCE BURGLARY

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—A crime prevention bureau is being organized here by Chief of Police Daniel J. O'Brien, who says its object will be to "take opportunity away from the crook and render it harder for him to make a living."

The first work mapped out for the new bureau is a survey of the burglar hazard of every building, store and home in San Francisco.
To accomplish this the police office district will study every building on their beats from the viewpoint of a potential burglar.
The patrolmen will discover the vulnerable points of houses, pointing them out to the owners,
that the necessary precautions may be taken.

The inspecting patrolman will ask himself: "Are those windows close to the ground kept locked?
"What about the skylight on this building—is it easily removed?"

"In this office building on Sundays do they keep watch on strangers who use the elevators?
Do they report strange men using the stairways on holidays?"
The latest wrinkles in burglar tricks and the adroitness of pickpockets will be broadcast to the public by the crime prevention bureau. The bureau will assemble exhaustive statistics on criminals and descriptions of criminals' methods.

"Intelligent co-operation between the public and the police department," explained Chief O'Brien, "will reduce burglaries, robberies and larcenies."

The bureau, said to be the first of its kind in the country, has been placed in charge of a lieutenant of police.

DOLLAR COMES BACK TO OWNER THREE TIMES

Danville, Ill., July 10.—Forty-two years ago M. C. Miller, former local man, earned his first dollar here. He marked his inheritance on the coin, which was issued in 1882, the year of his birth. Later he parted with the silver piece while at a circus in Brown, Va., in the 42 intervening years the coin came back to Miller's hands three times, according to statements made in a letter to Miller's friends here.

Thirteen years after the first seeing the coin was given to him in Danville, in payment for carfare on the city car of which he was a conductor. A short time later he lost the dollar.

Some time ago, a tourist, stopping for gasoline at a filling station in Indiana River City, Florida, where Miller is now located, presented him with the dollar for the third time.

The coin has evidently had an easy existence, for it is well preserved and nearly as bright as it was at the time of its birth, in the year 1882.

BROADCASTING WITHOUT USE OF CARRIER WAVES

Urbana, Ill., June 30.—Broadcasting without the use of carrier waves, one of the greatest discoveries in the radio field since its beginning, has been worked out by H. A. Brown, together with attaches at WRM, broadcasting station at the University of Illinois electrical laboratories.

Tests, conducted in secret by Brown and others at the laboratory, proved the benefits of the new broadcasting system.

The improvement, Brown stated, lies in the ability of stations in the immediate vicinity to tune out any station, and in the fact that a station using the system is made more selective with the clearer reception of the radio waves.

ARMY RIFLEMEN QUALIFY 100 PERCENT ON RANGE

San Francisco, (AP)—The Thirtieth Infantry, stationed here, is establishing the reputation of being the best regiment of marksmen in the army. It is said at Western Division headquarters.

Recently 46 men of the regiment went to the rifle range at Fort Barry with automatic rifles. The qualification of "expert riflemen," the highest grade awarded for marksmanship, was given to 44 and the other two won the rank of "sharpshooter," the next highest grade. The automatic rifle, a light, air-cooled machine gun, is carried and fired like an ordinary rifle and requires expert handling.

Out of 90 automatic gunners of the regiment, 85 have qualified as expert riflemen this year and the other five rank as sharpshooters.

MELT COINS FOR COPPER

New York, (AP)—After circulating many of them for more than a century, in the Dutch East Indies, 233 tons of copper coins were unloaded here recently on their way to a smelting plant in New Jersey. Many bore the date of 1790; others were worn so smooth that their age could not be determined.

These symbols of the trade of a corner of the world that readers of English associate chiefly with the novels of Joseph Conrad soon will be transmuted into just copper, practically pure copper, however, worth about $250 a ton.

The coins were collected by the Dutch Government ten years ago when the old issues were recalled and replaced with new.

BRICKS BROUGHT BISHOP

London, (AP)—Brickbats were the chief cause of the conversion of a teetotalism of the Bishop of London, this prelate said recently at a public gathering.

"I was led to become a teetotaler in a fit of youthful enthusiasm 40 years ago," the bishop declared, "because I saw brickbats being hurled at women trying to hold a temperance meeting in a town I will not name. When I saw that these devoted people had the whole of the publicans in the place leaving bricks at them, I said to myself that a cause that wanted backing up with bricks was not the cause for me. I have been a teetotaler ever since, and I am glad of it."

LITERBERRY SOCIETY PLANS OPEN MEETING

M. E. Society Names Committee For Annual Open Meeting at Home of Mrs. Eton Brainer in October.

Mrs. Earl Rexford entertained the Literberry M. E. society at her home Wednesday afternoon, a large number of members and visitors being present. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. J. C. McMillan.

After the opening song the twenty-third Psalm was repeated in concert and then all joined in singing "Higher Ground." After the business session Miss Lora Pottish entertained the company with some interesting readings.

There were also two papers read, "Signing of the Declaration of Independence" by Mrs. Flora Nicholas, and "Independence Day" by Mrs. Obermeyer.

A social hour followed, at which time the hostess served dainty refreshments. A collection was taken, amounting to $1.75, and several contributions were made to the birthday bank.

The annual open meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Eton Brainer in October. It was decided that instead of the regular August meeting an ice cream supper will be served at Arcadia on that day, Wednesday, Aug. 13. The committee appointed were as follows:

Purchasing committee—Mrs. McMillan, and Mrs. Lida Beavers.

WOMEN INCREASING ALONG WALL STREET

NEW YORK, (AP)—Wall Street is becoming more and more dependent upon women the average space for each office worker in the financial district of Manhattan has been cut down over six percent in the last decade; bankers maintain more magnificent quarters and give their employees less elbow room than all other tenants of the most pretentious skyscrapers.

These are the outstanding conclusions of experts of the Building Owners' and Managers' Association, after a survey of a group of the world's largest office buildings undertaken to obtain data for the use of architects in designing skyscrapers of the future.

Ten years ago, when the last decade door to door census of first class office buildings in the Wall Street district was taken, it was found that there were four men employees for every woman, and that the average floor space for each worker was 123 square feet.

A similar census in a typical office building recently revealed that in a total population for the structure of 10,868, the proportion of men to women was only two to one, and that the average working space had been reduced to 107 square feet.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

REACTIONARY STOCK MARKET SETS IN

NEW YORK, July 10. Stock prices turned reactionary today but not until after a sensational bullish demonstration had been staged in the public utility shares 21 of which established new peak prices for the year. While the market leaders of most commission houses expressed satisfaction with the Democratic National ticket many observers agreed that it was without apparent effect on the day's price movements. To some the action of the market indicated that the selection of a conservative candidate had been discounted and that a period of profit-taking was in order.

Publication of the U. S. Steel corporation's untitled tonnage figures for June showed a decrease of 365,584 tons, somewhat smaller than was expected. This movement in the steel stocks and other standard industrial shares. U. S. steel common which had reached a peak on the current movement at 10 1/4 in the early trading eventually fell back to 9 3/4 for a net loss of one point. Baldwin and American can each closed more than a point lower and Studebaker yielded fractionally. Losers of a point or more common in the railroad group, Chicago and Eastern Ill. issues showed independent strength. Call money again ruled at 2 percent.

WILL HUNT LIONS WITH BOW AND ARROW

DENVER, Colo., (AP)—E. R. Welch, a Florida hunter, will hunt mountain lions in Colorado this summer armed only with bow and arrow. He has notified Stanley P. Young, in charge of the predatory animal division for the United States biological survey.

No question about getting mountain lions if I get a shot at them," Welch wrote. "I can put an arrow through a one inch pink." All I ask is that the lions be freed first. I guarantee to knock him off the highest branches." Young assured Welch he would be welcome to chase mountain lions from one end of the Rockies to the other.
